AIX-EN-PROVENCE
FRANCE
Often I think of the beautiful
town that is seated
by the sea;

Often in thought go
and down
the pleasant streets of that dear
old town,
and my youth
comes back to me.”

Longfellow
We, the members of the yearbook staff, dedicate these memories to you, chère Madame Despeaux-Meyer.
We, the members of the yearbook staff, dedicate these memories to you, chère Madame Despeaux-Meyer.
"Afoot and light hearted, I take to the open road healthy, free, the world before me; The long brown path before me, leading wherever I choose You road I enter upon and look around! I believe you are all that is here; I believe that much unseen is also here."
"The quality of the light here is not strength but abundance. The shade is still full of it...
This land of pleasure satisfies desire..."

Gide
“Here with a loaf of bread, a flask of wine, a book of verse, and thou beside me singing in the Wilderness...”

Kahyham
“J'ai tendu des cordes de clocher à clocher; des guirlandes de fenêtre à fenêtre; des chaînes d'or d'étoile à étoile, et je danse.

Rimbaud
"You are here for a short while
While you are here
Don't hurry
Don't worry,
And don't forget to smell the lowers."

Rob Bollay
"When you part from your friend, you grieve not;
For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain."

Gibran
"Change-moi d'odeur, de couleur
Comme tu as changé
Hyacinte en fleur,
Fais braire la cigale en haut du pin, Fais-moi sentir le four à pain."

Ten months have passed. Nearly a year of our lives spent in a small university town in Southern France. And only one-hundred eighty people who realize the true essence of that year. These are the people who experienced it.

We the students at the Institute of American Universities, of course, have own personal memories, but there are those common to the student body as a whole.
Most outstanding are the first few weeks in Aix with the diversified impressions of the city, the Institute, our living conditions, and just our environment in general. We progressed from those weeks of adjustment to our first holiday at All Saints Weekend and then to Thanksgiving with us celebrating that holiday in a country that does not.
Christmas came and we were ready for it. We sought the holiday spirit with parties, presents and best wishes, but occupying our thoughts was the December 23rd evacuation of Aix. Our destinations were distant and diversified, but on January 3rd most of us appeared back in Aix with many tales to tell and the awful realization of finals in three weeks. Finals passed quickly and our efforts were rewarded by a short holiday extended by Mardi Gras. Thus commenced the second semester with new faces replacing those who in one way or another left us. The monotony of the first six weeks was broken by the coming of spring in March, followed by April which was accompanied by Spring Vacation.
The last six weeks flew by and then it was June.

The opportunity to live as an Aixois accorded us many revelations and varied memories. Friendships were made, the bonds of which will never dissipate; ideas were exchanged along with either real or imagined setbacks; life was examined, with the result that some philosophies were altered, and others were completely renovated. Whatever the memories, there is no doubt that this year has had a powerful and telling impact on every student, whether or not he realizes it. It is impossible to gauge just exactly what the differences were until that IAU group returned to the homefront; but no one came away unaffected.
We found that year abroad a broadening and enlightening experience never to be pushed to the back of our consciousness.
