Two Very Short Reflections

We talk of our losses, and not our gains
Of what we miss, ignoring what we were glad to leave behind.
What depth does that add to our lives?

There are no challenges anymore, only obstacles
No variety, only disarray.
Is it any wonder we are disappointed wherever we turn?

What comfort to find glory in what is new...

* * * * * *

I may laugh at the way you speak.
Your stares, and even the rhythm of your walk seem forbidding, strange.
I don't understand the looks I find behind your eyes.
Yet the same moon lights the separate paths
we follow home
And laughter knows no language barrier,
What we really have, we have together
And I am sure that nothing of importance in life ever passes away.

Christmas caroling at the Nursing Home
You say you want a revolution
Well you know
We all want to change the world
You tell me that it's evolution
Well you know
We all want to change the world
But when you talk about destruction
Don't you know that you can count me out
Don't you know it's gonna be alright
Alright, alright

You say you got a real solution
Well you know
We'd all love to see the plan
You ask me for a contribution
Well you know
We are doing what we can
But if you want money for people with minds that hate
All I can tell you is brother you have to wait
Don't you know it's gonna be alright.
Alright, alright

You say you'll change the constitution
Well you know
We all want to change your head
You tell me it's the institution
Well you know
You better free your mind instead
But if you start carrying pictures of Chairman Mao
You ain't going to make it with anyone anyhow
Don't you know it's gonna be alright
Alright, alright

SEIBA (pronounced "see-bah"), is the IAU program concerned with European and International business administration. Its purpose is to provide management training on an international level to those students who have completed their business studies or have had previous work experience. The program is designed to prepare those students for work in multi-national corps.

This year's program is made up of 3 students from diverse backgrounds. Loren Clark, a CPA from San Francisco, Guillermo Reta from Mexico City, with a masters degree in Economics, and Jane Hedlund with a BA in French and Spanish, and a BS in Econ. and Finance. Jane is also an Ambassador of Good Will for the Rotary International Club. The strong point of their year has been their individuality as well as their solidarity.

The SEIBA program differs from other IAU programs in their course make-up. First semester courses include: French, Economics, Government, History, and Business Strategy. Second semester, the students are required to follow courses, at l'Institut pour l'Administration des Entreprises, in addition to French and Economics taken at the IAU.

In addition to these courses, the group has done quite a bit of "educational" traveling. These include field trips visiting Rain Bird International-Les Milles, the U.S. Consulate in Marseille, a conference in Strasbourg, and even a little "independent" research in Barcelona.

It is hoped that this training, along with the contacts made in their year in France, will prove valuable in their future careers.
