UN SOURIRE

Un sourire ne coûte rien et produit beaucoup,
Il enrichit ceux qui le reçoivent,
Sans appauvrir ceux qui le donnent.
Il ne dure qu'un instant,
Mais son souvenir est par fois éternel.
Personne n’est assez riche pour s’en passer.
Personne n’est assez pauvre pour ne pas le mériter.
Il crée le bonheur au foyer, soutient les affaires.
Il est le signe sensible de l’amitié.
Un sourire donne du repos à l’être fatigué,
Rend du courage aux plus découragés.
Il ne peut ni s’acheter, ni se prêter, ni se voler,
Car c’est une chose qui n’a de valeur.
Qu’à partir du moment où il se donne
Et si quelquefois vous rencontrez une personne.
Qui ne sait plus avoir le sourire,
Soyez généreux, donnez-lui le vôtre.
Car nul n’a autant besoin d’un sourire,
Que celui qui ne peut en donner aux autres.

What a beautiful pair... of sailors!

Yes, I'll wash the dishes when I get home Mon Cherie.
You fly three-thousand miles over the Atlantic
You've got jet-lag and your mind's all frantic
Gazing at signs, looking which way to go
But the signs are in a language you don't really know

Finally get yourself to where you're supposed to be
Walk around a bit, amazed at what you see
Yes you're here in France, it ain't no lie
And a lot of times you'll wonder why

All the people here seem to talk really funny
They wear baggy pants and use monopoly money
How they got their reputation as great lovers is easy to see
It's the only thing to do in France that is relatively free

Cathedrals, museums, foreign movies and plays
Boulangeries, patisseries, boutiques, and cafes
Spain's not too far. Italy's a couple of hours
Germany, Switzerland, and castles and towers

And after it's all over, you'll fly back home
With memories of people, and Paris and Rome
But the main thing you'll learn throughout your long stay
Is that there is life outside the U.S. of A.
Editors Note:

We would like to apologize to all of our readers: loyal fans for having to cut many of our "grand" ideas. In face of a 4:00 pm, 20 April 1990 deadline, the work-load proved to be too much. To all the people who racked their brains for quotes in hopes of achieving immortal fame, we offer a hearty "maybe next time." To all the students, professors, staff not represented on these pages, again we apologize. We tried to get as many pictures as possible, but time beat us to the finish. We want to give much thanks to Yamina for all her help. We couldn't have done it without you, thanks! As in the words of Edmond Haraucourt, "Partir c'est mourir un peu, c'est mourir à ce qu'on aime on; laisse un peu de soi-même, en tout heurte et dans tout lieu!" "To go away is to die a little, it is to die to that which one loves: everywhere always, one leaves behind a part of oneself!"

Our Very Special Thanks To YAMINA!!!!!

We would also like to express our personal gratitude to Adrianna for her domineering, dictative, autocratic, despotic, ever-present, oppressive, stress inflicting, bossy, insistant, persistant, manipulative behavior to bring this yearbook to completion.
JUST KIDDING ADRIANNA, YOU'RE THE BEST!!!!!

GREAT JOB!!!!!
