

IAU SPRING TROUBADOUR #5

Chers Collègues, Chers Etudiants,

Nous avons pris grand plaisir à participer à nos conférences de ce semestre. C'est aussi un plaisir d'entendre des remarques encourageantes au sujet de la qualité de ces échanges qui s'avèrent engageants et pertinents. This week will be a very full week in terms of our lectures as well as other activities, and we plan on the continued good turnout for these talks. We have had some strikingly pertinent talks on a variety of subjects, and I am definitely not the only one to have made note of the high level of intellectual rigor and depth while at the same time the lectures' accessibility. Over the years, students at IAU have been deeply affected by the deep personal changes they experienced with new ways of thinking and seeing the world. Inside and outside the classroom, these changes occur when curiosity is sparked and compelled by individual engagement. As you may have noticed, the semester has already moved by at an extraordinary pace. We're actually getting close to mid-terms! Don't let it all slip by.

Passez une excellente semaine,

Leigh Smith
