Course Preferences

Before selecting your courses, please refer to the course schedule at www.iaufrance.org/CourseSearch.

Applicants for The School of Humanities and Social Sciences: Fall or spring semester students are expected to enroll in five courses (15-18 credits) including at least one French course. Credit hours for one French language course can vary from 3 to 6, depending on the level. You should also print the schedule of courses for the semester so that you can avoid time conflicts.

Applicants for The French Honors Program: Students are expected to enroll in all French courses. Any course with a prefix of FRE is an eligible course. Applicants are required to enroll in a 4 credit French Honors Course which will include one fall or spring semester content course chosen by the applicant.

Applicants for The Marchutz School of Fine Arts: Students are expected to enroll in the Art Criticism Seminar as well as Painting and Drawing. Semester applicants must also enroll in 6 credits at The School of Humanities and Social Sciences.

All Students

Semester students, please list the five courses you propose to take, plus three alternates. Summer applicants should select one, two or three courses and two alternates based on the desired credit load. Consult with the academic advisor at your home institution for approval of all selections. Upon acceptance, students will be asked to confirm their choices. We ask you to select alternate classes because classes you have chosen may be filled. Please contact leigh.smith@iaufrance.org with questions regarding course selection.
