Course Preferences

Before selecting your courses, please refer to the course schedule at www.iau.edu. In addition, please consider the following guidelines based on program selection.

Note: For semester programs in Aix-en-Provence, all students are required to enroll in a French course.

The School of Humanities and Social Sciences: Fall or Spring semester students enroll in five courses (15 credits). Summer students enroll in one to three courses (3 to 9 credits).

The French or Spanish Honors Program: Students enroll in all French or Spanish courses for a total of 15 credits. Any course with a prefix of FRE or SPA is an eligible course.

The Marchutz Core Art Program: Students enroll in the Art Criticism Seminar, Painting and Drawing courses, one French course and one elective of their choosing for a total of 15 credits. Summer students enroll in 6 to 9 credits.

The Mediterranean Core Art Program: Students enroll in the Mediterranean Seminar, Painting and Drawing courses, Art History or Museum Studies, and one French course for a total of 15 credits.

The School of Business and International Relations: Students enroll in a minimum of three business courses and other electives of their choice for a total of 15 credits.

J-Term Traveling Seminar: Students enroll in one 3-credit course.

8-Week Summer Internship Program: Students enroll in 6 credits through either a full-time or part-time internship in the summer. Part-time internship applicants will enroll in one 3-credit course.

Virtual Experiences Program: Students enroll in 3-6 credits comprised of either a virtual internship and/or global consulting project.

All Students

Semester applicants should list the five courses (15 credits) they propose to take, plus three alternates. Summer applicants should select one, two or three courses and two alternates based on the desired credit load. J-Term students should list one primary course and one alternate course. Students should consult with the academic advisor at their home institution for approval of all selections. Upon acceptance, students will be asked to confirm their choices. We ask students to select alternate courses because courses they have chosen may be filled. Please contact enroll@iau.edu with questions regarding course selection.
