STUDY TOUR

September 14, 2015

Chers Etudiants,

Je suppose que vous avez tous vécu le mauvais temps hier et nous en sommes désolés. Le bowling n'est peut-être pas l'activité typique de la Provence, mais bientôt au retour du soleil on sortira de nouveau. De toutes façons, nous espérons que vous avez bien aimé le Bowling du Bras d'Or. We hope as well you are slowly but surely getting into the swing of things, that you are settling into your classes and into your new selves as newly born aixois. As for ill-fated visit of Marseille, we have scheduled a new date, so please see below. It will be important as well to sign up. Let's assume that the weather will hold out. Have a great week.

Bien à vous tous,

Leigh Smith

Dean of IAU College

PROFESSORS ROBERTS AND GASPARACH PRESENT AT PRINCETON

We wish the best of luck to our Co-Directors of the Marchutz School of Fine Arts as they head to Princeton University today to speak to the Arts school there about the legacy of Léo Marchutz and his friendship with the noted art collector Henry Pearlman. They will direct two workshops with studio students at Princeton as well. As curators of much of Marchutz's work and disciples of his teachings, Professors Roberts and Gasparach are well situated to present his work and legacy.
