

IAU TROUBADOUR #13

"Unie dans la diversité"

Chers Etudiants,

Vous devez tous savoir qu'hier l'Europe a fêté le 8 mai pour commémorer la capitulation des allemands en 1945 et la fin de la Seconde Guerre mondiale. C'est pour ça que vous voyez beaucoup de drapeaux tricolores. May 8 is an important day but so is this day, May 9. You'll notice the phrase in French at the beginning of this newsletter, a phrase that few Europeans really know though many should. It is the motto of the European Union, and today is the day in which Robert Schuman (former Prime Minister of France, not the German composer) proposed in 1950 the creation of the European Coal and Steel Community, the first supranational institution that would set the stage for the eventual creation of the EU. As stated in the Schuman Declaration, "Europe will not be made all at once, or according to a single plan. It will be built through concrete achievements which first create a de facto solidarity." We can only wonder what will the European citizens in the United Kingdom be thinking about come June 23. "United in diversity" or "prisoner escaping jail"? We'll see you all at tonight's Closing Ceremony. Bien à vous,

Best Regards,
Leigh Smith
Dean of IAU
