

IAU SUMMER TROUBADOUR #3

"Obsessed with the idea of instant and total integration, we failed to notice that ordinary people, the citizens of Europe, do not share our Euro enthusiasm."

Donald Tusk, European Union President

Chers Etudiants,

Cette semaine le projet de l'Union Européenne sera remis en question. Si vous suivez les informations, vous devez savoir que le 23 juin les citoyens du Royaume Uni vont s'exprimer dans un référendum sur leur souhait de rester ou pas dans l'UE. The result of the British referendum will be closely watched, and its effects will be felt far beyond this small continent. We hope to see you at tomorrow night's talk where there will surely be questions about how we got here and what the aftershocks will be following the yay or nay of the UK population. With his many years as a consultant within the EU, Professor David Coombes is as good a source as any, and we look forward to what he has to present on the current dilemma. We'll shift subjects on Wednesday with Professor Malewska's retrospective on food and the arts. As for weekly business, we are still short on cell phone info for many students. Please do go to www.iaustudents.com and submit your number for emergency contact.

Passez une bonne semaine,
