IAU, with study abroad programs in Aix-en-Provence, France, is proud to introduce the Meredith Hope Emerson French Studies Scholarship Program for qualified UGA students interested in a semester or summer abroad in France with IAU. The scholarship program, created in memory of Meredith - who was a former IAU French Honors Student - offers two half-tuition semester scholarships and one half-tuition summer scholarship for qualified UGA students enrolled in IAU French Studies classes.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA AND AMOUNTS

For the two semester scholarships, worth $5,200 each, one will be given to a UGA student based on merit and the second will be awarded based on financial need. The summer scholarship, worth $2,100, will be awarded based on merit.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Interested students must first apply to IAU's Aix-en-Provence campus via their website at www.iaufrance.org. Students need to submit official transcripts and additional required documents as stipulated by IAU. The essay component required by IAU will be used as part of the application for the scholarship. Once accepted to the IAU program, students wishing to qualify for the scholarship must send an e-mail to Professor Jonathan Krell (jkrell@uga.edu) and include the following: name, major(s), cumulative GPA and French experience.
