

AIX-EN-PROVENCE

ALUMNI FELLOWS

TYPICAL ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist with Student Life, Academic Programs (including Wine Studies Program) projects and events, and institute-sponsored activities such as lectures, receptions, and student welcome events.
- Engage campus community by serving reception hours at any buildings
- Support logistical operations including student residence preparation, arrivals, orientation, and conferences.
- Provide administrative support administrative and project coordination for ACM-IAU Operations
- Provide general mentorship and support for ACM-IAU students and their experience in Barcelona

Specific responsibilities will be determined alongside supervisor based on program needs and student interest*

ALUMNI FELLOW BENEFITS:

- Housing in ACM-IAU apartments or residence
- Tuition waiver for 12 credits (6 academic units, 6 units internship credit)
- Access to all facilities and ACM-IAU activities
- Support and Professional Development provided by Dean of Students
- Share your invaluable support with new ACM-IAU students you learned in your home abroad

ANTICIPATED COSTS

- Flights/Transportation to ACM-IAU in Aix-en-Provence
- Food and daily living costs (outside of accompanying ACM-IAU activity)
- Costs associated with getting a visa ($300-500)